PROSECUTION—Wednesday, Nov. 1. The new month began this morning with rather a busy day before the Police Court. This is All Saint's Day, but, judging from the number of persons before the Police Court, we would call it All Sinners' Day.

The following persons, all of whom are members of the Eighteenth U. S. Infantry, imbibed too freely of John Barleycorn, and had quite a spree of their own, to the annoyance of all peaceful citizens. They are—Robert Cassey, James C. Fonteyne, Frank Reed, Vinton, Verich, Pat Kramer, Geo. Goodwin and John Lewis. Judge Harboone charged each of them for their drink.

Wm. Malone was found by the officers with a large load he could carry; he was fined $10 for carrying an over load.

The next parties presented to the court were Anthony Taylor, Fred Dupuy, Ben Ross and Geo. Blanchard, for disorderly conduct. They were let off by his Honor, John Flynn, in the habit of drinking too freely, for which privilege he had to pay $10 to the sheriff, and, many days before the trial, the city in behalf of the state, was fined $5 and sent to the county jail.

C. D. Huff, charged with attempting to burn down a house, was discharged, it is said, because the house was burning.

Pauline alias Wilson, passing a counterfeit Treasury note, continued until to-morrow.

Laura Reed, Anna Young and Sallie Gallic, three young ladies of African descent, were next presented for stealing $25 from H. E. Zook; Laura Reed held in $300 to answer, and the other two discharged.

John Alexander, a free negro and an old offender against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, was next brought into court charged with stealing a coat from a free negro; condemned until to-morrow.

John Miller, alias Buzz, a boy fifteen years of age, on the way from New Orleans was arrested for stealing $10 from William Grant; he was held to bail in $300 for twelve months, being too young to have the charge of felony sustained against him. He went to board with Kilpatrick.

Thomas R. Hawkin and Richard Carter, stealing two horses from Moses Jenkins. This case has been continued from day to day to prevent the witness for the Commonwealth from testifying, nor are the parties well satisfied.

Foster Smith and Geo. Smith, two free negroes, stealing a horse from a gentleman in Woodford county; they were discharged.

There being no other business, the court adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

MASONIC TEMPLE—Our music-loving citizens will be glad to learn that Mr. H. L. Bateman, with his world-renowned concert party, will commence a series of grand vocal and instrumental concerts in the Masonic Temple on Monday night next. The members of this troupe are Mlle Parepa, Mr. J. Levy, Herr Carl Rosa, Herr Carr Anschutz and a grand orchestra. Judging from the opinions of the press elsewhere, we are inclined to believe that this talented troupe of artists are the best in this country, at any rate, we know that Mlle Parepa has no superior as a vocalist anywhere. See their advertisement in the announcement column.

NEW FIRM IN NEW YORK.—We direct the attention of readers to the card of Messrs. Tillotson & Bowley, who have formed a partnership for the purpose of conducting a general banking and brokerage business at No. 9 New street, near Wall, in the city of New York. It will be seen that the firm does not consist of a single man, but of two, and that they are well known in the business.

Strangers visiting Louisville will be pleased to call on Philip Rosenthal, 125 Main street, between Market and Second, who is a well-known and popular banker.

The Tribune's Washington special of the 31st says Brevet Major General Jas. R. Hawley, late chief of staff to General Terry, commanding at Richmond, has resigned his commission, and returned to the editorship of the Hartford Press.

A. Cushing's mission to Europe for the Government is purely and entirely professional and not diplomatic, as has been extensively circulated.

(Special to the Times.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

To-day the President pardoned Pierre Soule.

Brigadier General Swett, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, accompanied by Gov. Parsons, with a view to obtain Executive sanction to certain measures of administrative to the end that they may be adopted.

Local claim agents, of course, expect compensation for their time and labor, and will be employing them, in addition to the expense of employing a telegraph line of communication with the Department of Washington, necessarily incurred.

The State has also employed local agents at Louisville, Ky., Colonel John W. Gant and Colonel W. H. Morris, who will receive a sum equivalent to the compensation to soldiers having claims due them by the Government.

The U. S. Sanitary Commission, which has been most active throughout the rebellion, has established a claim agency at Washington, with local claim agents, who will be employed to examine and settle claims of soldiers, and may earnestly invite all soldiers to confide to their agents the collection and settlement of their accounts of charge.

It is to be hoped that the Government will make arrangements to enable them to do this.

By order of the Governor.

Fire Engines for Sale.

By direction of the General Council, I will sell four hand fire engines and two hand ladders, which have been used in the service of the country, and are now to be sold whenever found and turned over to the nearest Quartermaster. The persons in possession of disputed property must show their title, and the amount of same, before the sale is made.

By order of the General Council.
